

Breach of Contract by Michael Puderbeutel at QuickSilver May 2024

I, Marta Tereshchenko, residing at 1560 W. 10th Street, #3R, Brooklyn, NY 11219, lent $200,000.00 to Michael Puderbeutel on February 15, 2017. According to the Promissory Note signed by Michael P., he supposed to pay me twelve percent (12%) interest per annum, and repay me my principal sum of $200,000.00 upon my request after a year-expiration from the date he signed the Promissory Note at 02/15/2017, and within 120 days of my request.

Originally, Michael P. company's name was MaxAdvance, LLC before and on 02/15/2017, but then, his company became the Quick Silver Capital (www.quicksilvercap.com), from which I was receiving a few last $200 interest checks until April, 2024. (See the attached copies of his checks I've deposited)

I've been requesting Michael P. to stop the contract a few times after May of 2018 as I needed my $200,000.00 back. However, he never responded to my emails and phone calls

Starting from April 13, 2020, he breached the contract sending me reduced-percentage of interest-checks of various values. Last time he sent me a $200 check in April of 2024.

To my email complaints to Michael P. on my hardship to maintain my living with his smaller interest-checks, he responded only once in his email to me on 04/12/2020 writing that...

"he had no choice but temporarily reduce his obligations, but when crisis is over, we will resume as before."

This was the only time Michael P. responded to my email in the last 7 years, where he lied that he "will resume as before."

Michael avoided to discuss his debt with me even when I came to his LI-located office a year ago, giving me his lawyer's, Mr. Wertman, phone number. Then, he called the police to remove me from his office.

On May 10, 2023 I've sent two certified letters to Michael and his lawyer, Mr. Wertman, offering him to renegotiate the contract, but he didn't reply.

Please, kindly help me to make Michael P. pay his debt of $255,930.00 to me that includes my principal of $200,000.00 and $55,930 interest he underpaid for the last 5 years.

Eddie A. Kleydman Advised Marta T. to Invest Marta T Money in Max Advance

Edgar A. Kleydman (aka Eddie), who served me at Chase bank, advised me, Marta Tereshchenko, to invest my money into Max Advance, LLC. He even came with me to Michael Puderbeutel's office. Michael P., paid money to Eddie K. for such referrals.

Eddie said to me he trusts Michael Puderbeutel, as his, Eddie's mom also invested her money (as he said, which I'm not sure if it was true) into Max Advance, LLC.

I did not contact Eddie for the last 10 yrs., but Eddie's phone number was then
